FINANCE DEPARTMENT

----:o:----

I forward herewith an application for compassionate gratuity submitted by Sreemathy P.Y. Lakshmi ammal widow of Sri K.G. Swaminatha Iyer, late copyist, District Munsif's Court, Alatur who died while in service on 11--5--1952.

The application was forwarded to the Revenue Authorities for enquiry and report. The report of the Revenue Authorities discloses the following facts.

The deceased Government servant had no properties moveable or immoveable. He was not contributing to any life insurance policy. He had a sum of Rs.359/- to his credit in the General Provident Fund and it was paid to his widow, the applicant. A sum of Rs.40/- due to him as arrears of pay was also paid to the applicant. The applicant states that the entire amount was spent for paying off debts incurred for the treatment of the prolonged illness of her husband and for the obsequies expenses. He has no other assets. He had no liabilities also.

He has left behind him his widow the applicant Sreemathy P.Y. Lakshmi ammal aged 27, two sons and one daughter (Sons Ganesan aged 11, Yegneswaran aged 6; and daughter Saroja aged 3½.) They were wholly dependant on the deceased and they are not possessed of any property. The two boys Ganesan and Yegneswaran are attending school and they are studying in Vth standard and 2nd standard respectively. There are no relations who are in a position or under obligation to support the dependants of the deceased. She is now residing in her sister's house along with her children.

The deceased Copyist had put in a total service of 18 years 9 months and 9 days. There is nothing against him on record. At the time of his death he was drawing a pay of Rs.30/- and dearness allowance at the minimum rate of Rs.19/- per mensem.

Considering the premature death of the Government Servant and the helpless condition of his widow and young children I recommend that a sum of Rs.400/- (Rupees Four Hundred Only) may be granted as compassionate gratuity to the applicant on behalf of herself and her minor children. She requests that any amount sanctioned may be ordered to be paid at the Civil station Treasury, Bangalore to her present *address given below.

The service roll, descriptive roll, records of enquiry and other connected papers are enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

District Judge.

Sir,

I beg to submit that my husband, Sri K.G.Swaminatha Iyer, Copyist of Alatur District Munsif's Court, expired on 11-5-1952 leaving behind me his widow, and two boys and one girl of ages 11, 6 and 3 with nobody to help us. I am aged 27.

2. My husband at death was only 45 and he served as copyist for 19 years.

3. My husband had no ancestral property nor had he saved anything - even a house or a policy with any Insurance Company except a very small amount in G.P.F. On the other hand he left a huge debt behind.

4. He has been till death living in a rented house, in which we are now continuing, with no home of ours to shift to.

5. My husband and his brothers partitioned 19 years back with a debt of Rs.350/- to each one's share. That debt was cleared by selling my ornaments and jewels.

6. I have no brother to help me and my three small children. My aged father with no son to him is aged 77 and not in a position financially or physically to help me.

7. My husband had been seriously ill for the past three years which worsened at his death. I had to incur a great debt for his treatment and for performance of funeral ceremonies as per our community rights.

8. He was not allowed pay for his first period of leave.

9. If he had lived for the remaining 10 years of his service, I would have the consolation that my first son had come to an earning stage.

10. My children and I have noplace to go to nor any pie to get for maintenance. I have no other alternative than to approach your Honour for the grant of a compensative gratuity for which act of kindness and charity we shall ever remain grateful.

11. I do hereby declare that these facts are true and can be verified if need be.

With respects,
Your Honour's faithfully,
Lakshmy Ammal

Sir,

I am forwarding herewith a petition ~~xx~~ of P. Y. Lakshmi Ammal, widow of late Sri K.G.Swaminatha Aiyar, late copyist of this Court.

I request that necessary enquiries as to the legal heirs of the deceased may be made and the petition returned to me with full particulars.

Yours faithfully,

4 N.D.is 626/82.

It is submitted to the Hon. Tahildar, Adyanthur.

21- The petitioner Smt. Lakshmi resides at Bangalore now. No close relatives of her are there now. She has no properties in the place. Herself and her 3 minor children are the legal heirs and dependents of the deceased.
The deceased's mother is also a legal heir; but she is living with the deceased's brother and her children at Kamarathe Tenkan village. Hence she is not in a position to get any help from the Government. The petitioners case is a deserving one. It is a deserving case for the grant of a reasonable amount of gratuity. Details of the deceased's earnings (movable or immovable) could not be obtained as there are no close relatives of the petitioner are in Perim. Kelan village. But on local enquiry I understand that the deceased has not left anything to the wife and children. The petitioner left to Bangalore with her children about 2 months back. Her present address is furnished below.

In the case of copyists who are, in addition to pay and dearness allowance, in receipt of extra remuneration, it is usual to take into account the average monthly remuneration paid during the last one year for the purpose of compassionate gratuity. For precedent vide p.33 c.f. of G.O. 704 Pen. dt. 13-8-52. In this case, the late copyist's remuneration during the twelve complete months he worked prior to death has been reported by the District Munsif, Alatur, as Rs.933-13-0--please see p.4 of Service Roll. This works out to Rs.77-13-0 per mensem.
